Announcements for October 19, 2018

Marysville Middle School is enforcing the dress code as so stated in the student handbook!!
Check out the Marysville Middle School website for more information.

The VFW Patriot's Pen writing contest is underway. This year's topic is "Why I Honor the American Flag." The top prize is $5000 and an all-expense paid trip to Washington DC. See Mrs. Paul for more information. All entries must be submitted to Mrs. Paul by Wednesday, October 24.

8th graders: It is time for the Farm Bureau Insurance America & Me Essay Contest. The topic is, "My Personal Michigan Hero." The grand prize is $2000. Please see Mrs. Paul for more details. All entries are due to Mrs. Paul by Friday, November 9.

The blue Polar Bear Plunge sheets are coming in! We already have our first one dozen plungers. You still have plenty of time to join our team. See Mrs. Piechotte in Room 103 to join. It all happens on December 1st at Lakeside Beach in Port Huron. We run in at noon and run out at 12:02! Sign up and join the fun.

The weather is getting colder. Be sure to dress appropriately because we are going outside at lunch.

The Marysville Volleyball Club registration meeting is November 7th. Informational flyers are available in the hallway outside of Student Services for any interested 6th grade girl.

Spooktacular pledge sheets due in the office today! Someone is going to win a Viking Spirit Stash, a drone, and a donut/hot chocolate party with friends! MMS Spooktacular is next Friday with pizza, games, contests, dance, haunted locker room, and more!

After announcements today, 7th graders will be dismissed to go down to the cafeteria for a social studies guest speaker.
