Just like a basketball tournament, books will compete in a bracket-style competition. Each round, two books will "face off," and you'll get to vote for the one you think should move on. The winning books will advance to the next round until only one remains — our 2026 Book Champion!

Here's how you can participate:

- Read as many of the tournament books as you can.
- Listen to book talks and recommendations.
- Discuss the books with your classmates.
- Vote for your favorites each round.

This is all about discovering new books, exploring different genres, and having fun as a school reading community. You don't have to read every single book to participate — just jump in and be part of the excitement!
