

Business Law

Course Description

The Business Law curriculum introduces students to statutes, ordinances, and regulations affecting businesses, families, and individuals in their related roles. This knowledge is useful for all students because all students eventually assume roles as citizens, workers, and consumers in their communities and in society at large.

This foundation will include an emphasis on torts, criminal law, constitutional rights, law for the minor, law for the business firm, fundamentals of contracts, property law, insurance, wills/estates/trusts, employment ethics and bankruptcy.

In summary, this curriculum gives students a basic understanding of law, the legal system, and what it means to exhibit ethical behavior. Students learn to recognize the legal problems they can handle themselves and those that require professional help.
