

Communication Arts II

Course Description

Communication Arts II is designed to offer students opportunities to work with advanced techniques and equipment. Focus of the course will be on the production of television programming that is not only technically sound, but also creative and aesthetically pleasing. Writing assignments focus on critical viewing skills, scripts, and storyboards.

This course is an advanced level of Communication Arts I television studio production. Additionally, advanced level students create and direct productions.