

High School Freshman Marching Band

Course Description

This band is for all incoming ninth grade students during the 1st semester. It is expected that members will have had previous playing experience. The student should develop the proper techniques in marching and maneuvering. Students will perform the proper musical technique while marching and will understand the basic concept of a marching drill. Performances are required for all students: football games, marching band festivals, parades and concerts.

September 2011