

Speech

Course Description

Speech class, a semester course, is a performance-based Visual Performing Arts Class that requires the student to create speeches (performances) on a wide variety of topics for a wide range of speaking situations.

Students will be required to perform individually, in teams and in panel discussions. Informal and impromptu speaking will eventually lead to formal persuasive speaking in this interesting and creative performance speaking class.